INTRODUCTION

Weddings in Vietnam, if you are deciding whether to have a wedding abroad you should know that arranging a wedding overseas is becoming increasingly easier & more popular. There is also a growing list of amazing wedding destinations where it is possible for you to easily get married overseas & have a fantastic wedding day.

Many couples opt to bring family and friends with them to be there on their special day, but if it are just the two of you, witnesses can usually be easy to arrange at the location of your wedding abroad. If you are traveling alone make sure you have a video taken or loads of pictures from a photographer to share with everyone who couldn't come back home. Most wedding destinations can cater for all tastes - whether you desire a simple, intimate ceremony together or an extravagant wedding day with hundreds of guests.

Wedding Tour Description

The trip will be arranged by Western Travel corporation, our boats are privately serving your special day and your guests. It is surprised that it is the first wedding tour as program indicated for you and your sweet heart.

Boat trip will cruise on Tien River to Cai Be where is so familiar with international tourists for the floating market and oldest church that is celebrated your ritual activities. Particularly the lunch on boat with special menu which you have never had before because of different taste - boat joining together for lunch wedding party with a traditional music team served your guests with a typical songs and music exchange
